

Leader's Guide for
FOUNDATIONS OF CHRISTIANITY
With Father Michael Himes

Mystery

We suggest you show this program before any of the others in this series.

Discussion Questions

- Himes retells the Job story. How does the Job story make you feel? What do you think about God's answer to Job?
- Himes says the most important things in life cannot be explained. In his life he gives the example of being a priest. What in your life is so important you cannot adequately explain it?
- What is your favorite metaphor for God?
- Have you ever felt compelled to say something about God but tongue-tied by the awareness that you were not able to speak of God adequately? What was that experience like?
- Have you ever said too much about God?
- Have you ever been silent when you should have spoken?
- What new insights did you gain from this program? Did anything confuse or disturb you?

Note to leader: You may want to show this video twice and see what new insights people pick up the second time.

Conversion

We suggest you show the program "Mystery" before any of the others in this series.

Discussion Questions

- Do you know anyone, like Paul, who had an instant conversion?
- What do you think of Himes' notion that all major religious traditions are "formation programs"?
- What saint do you most identify with? Who are your "conversation partners" in faith? Who has nurtured you in the Christian life?
- What is your experience of renewing your baptismal vows? Do you see progress in your conversion journey from other times when you renewed them?
- Has there been a time in your life when the external word of God and the internal word of God came together after a long time of listening to the external word?

Faith

We suggest you show the program "Mystery" before any of the others in this series.

Discussion Questions

- Father Himes describes two times of identity crisis in the church's history. Do you have a memory of that second crisis—in the 1960's at the time of Vatican II? How have we grown in faith since then?
- When someone says "God" to you, what do you think of?
- Have you ever experienced religion as "idolatry"?
- Have you ever fallen into "relativism"?
- What do you think of Father Himes' definition of "faith"?
- Why is "radical monotheism" so challenging?
- What did you find to be disturbing among these insights? What did you find to be enlightening? Inspiring?

Hope

We suggest you show the program "Mystery" before any of the others in this series.

Discussion Questions

- Have you ever confused hope with utopianism? What was that experience like? Have we ever done that as a church?
- Have you ever given in to despair? What was that like? What pulled you through?
- Give an example on a personal level of Christian Realism. Give an example on the church level.
- Who is a person of hope in your life?
- How did Jesus express his hope?
- How do you feel about the sermon given at the death of the child Nathaniel?
- What does it mean to embrace God as Mystery?

Love

We suggest you show the program "Mystery" before any of the others in this series.

Discussion Questions

- Was there a time in your life when it was difficult to love the other as "other"?
- When have you experienced "I-thou" relationships? When have you experienced "I-it" relationships?
- When have you seen "love as a choice" in action?
- Himes sees Paul's definition of love and Thomas Aquinas' definition of love as similar. Do you agree? If so, how would you describe that similarity?
- Himes says: "Giving life away is not a command but a description." That discovery surprised Himes. Does that statement surprise you?
- Himes gave us several definitions of love. Do you know others?
- When has love required courage in your life?
- Himes says that when you give yourself away, you will be constantly renewed. Has this been true in your life?
